

LEGACY-PENS

Commemorate your loved veteran's service with a pen made from the Honor Guard's rifle cartridges fired at their funeral.

The honor is mine to make a commemorative pen for you from the cartridge cases fired by the Honor Guard beside your loved veteran's casket. Each handmade pen will contain one of the actual cartridges fired, I will provide the other cartridge. The cases you received will be cleaned, polished, machined and assembled to make a long-lasting and useful pen that will help you remember your veteran and their service on an ongoing basis.

EXTRA INFO

The pen is a twist-style ball point, black ink, Cross™-style (refills readily available at office or stationery supply stores). The pen's tip and pocket clip are copper plated, they do not need polishing. Your brass cartridge cases will remain shiny with use or can be polished with a soft polishing cloth - please do not use abrasives.

We suggest you put this special keepsake in your checked luggage. TSA or your airline may, at their discretion, permit you to carry it with you or may not and it's best to avoid the hassle of having to ship it to yourself if they choose to take it away from you.

Price includes completed pen boxed and shipped to U.S. Postal Service mail box or APO. The base of each cartridge case has unique numbers and letters. When you send me your cases, I'll ask that you note this information on my order form, and I guarantee that you'll receive back each case you send to me to make into pens. Please realize that during the firing process, cases may become marked or scratched; some of these characteristics may be removed during my cleaning and polishing process, some may not. A portion of the profits from the sale of these pens is donated to Veteran's causes such as Honor Flight - which hosts trips for WWII Vets to see the WWII Memorial and the other military memorials in Washington D.C.
